OWNERSHIP

TOM BENSON
1927-2018

In a career in business and professional sports that spanned over 70 years, Tom Benson was an endearing figure in his hometown of New Orleans as well as throughout the NBA and the NFL. Mr. Benson served as the owner of the New Orleans Pelicans since 2012 and the New Orleans Saints since 1985 until his death on March 15, 2018. He was survived by his wife Gayle.

In 2012 Mr. Benson purchased the Hornets franchise from the National Basketball Association, which was successfully rebranded as the Pelicans. The objectives in his ownership of the basketball team were the same as his stewardship of the Saints: to produce a team on-the-court that will compete for championships every year, while making a significant positive impact off-the-court in the community. Upon the ownership transfer, construction immediately started on a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility adjacent to the Saints practice fields, which now comprises the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, with the entire Pelicans organization being housed together for the first time in the franchise's history. Through agreements with the State of Louisiana upon the purchase of the Pelicans, the Smoothie King Center has undergone nearly a complete renovation since the 2012 purchase, featuring a new center-hung HD video scoreboard in 2015, along with several fan upgrades. On the court, after Mr. Benson inherited a team that finished with the worst record in the NBA's Western Conference in 2011-12, the Pelicans have built through a combination of the draft, free agent signings and trades to become a stable and successful organization, reaching the playoffs for the second time in 2018 since the purchase of the club.

BENSON MILESTONES

1985: Ownership of the Saints officially transferred to Tom Benson on May 31 and he becomes managing general partner of the club.

1986: The Benson influence begins as the owner puts his management team in charge of the franchise, hiring Jim Finks as president/general manager and Jim Mora as head coach.

1987: The Saints post a franchise-best 12-3 record—including victories in the final nine contests—and make the playoffs for the first time.

1988: The Saints finish 10-6, posting a double-digit victory total again and achieving consecutive winning seasons for the first time.

1989: Mr. Benson appointed Chairman of the league's most influential group, the NFL Finance Committee, a position he kept for three separate stints, before most recently stepping down in 2013.

1990: After winning six of their last nine games, the Saints earn their second playoff appearance by finishing second in the NFC West.

1991: New Orleans clinched its first division championship with an 11-5 record and capture the NFC West.

1992: The Saints post a 12-4 record and host a playoff game for the second-straight year. Mr. Benson assumes sole ownership of the club.

1993: The Saints finish second in the NFC West, with the club recording its seventh-straight non-losing season.

1996: Marking a first for the organization, the coaches, players and staff are housed under one roof with the opening of the team's state-of-the-art facility in Metairie.

2000: New Orleans wins the NFC West with a 10-6 record. The Saints win their first playoff game, a 31-28 thriller over St. Louis in the Superdome.

2002: The city hosts its fourth Super Bowl during Mr. Benson's tenure as owner. Mr. Benson promotes Mickey Loomis to general manager of football operations.

2003: Mr. Benson again appointed Chairman of the Finance Committee; Construction of new indoor practice facility and other improvements are finished before training camp, as the club holds camp in Metairie for the first time in franchise history.

2005: After Hurricane Katrina ravaged the Gulf South on the verge of the NFL's opening weekend, Benson was forced to move the club's entire operation. Under his leadership, the Saints were able to continue the season, including holding four games in Baton Rouge. The club established the Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund, raising over $1 million.

2006: The team returns to Louisiana, with Mr. Benson positioning the club as an emblem of the state's resolve and determination in rebuilding. The Saints—selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time—win the NFC South title under the guidance of new head coach Sean Payton and the spark of free agent acquisition Drew Brees, finishing at 10-6. The victory total included a memorable, 23-3 win over Atlanta in the reopening of the Superdome. The team advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time in franchise history. Payton and Loomis were consensus choices for the NFL Coach of the Year and NFL Executive of the Year awards respectively.

2008: Mr. Benson purchases WVUE, making FOX-8 the only network-affiliated television station in the New Orleans market that is wholly locally owned. The Saints defeat the San Diego Chargers at London's Wembley Stadium, playing in their first regular season game outside the United States.

2009: In what Mr. Benson considers part of his legacy in Louisiana, the New Orleans native reaches an agreement with the state through 2025 that will create a new Sports Development District downtown, including a completely renovated Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The Benson family purchased and redeveloped two properties—each adjacent to the Superdome—an economic windfall for the region without any new taxes. New Orleans is selected by the NFL to host Super Bowl XLVII, to be played on February 3, 2013, with Mr. Benson serving as the city's leading advocate in the campaign. It is the fifth time New Orleans will host the Super Bowl since he's owned the club. On the field, the Saints enjoy their most successful season in franchise history. New Orleans sets a club record for victories with a 13-3 regular season, capturing the NFC South title. The Saints then hosted the NFC Championship game for the first time and advance to their first Super Bowl with a 31-28 overtime victory over the Minnesota Vikings on January 24, 2010. New Orleans then defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 31-17, on February 7, 2010, in Super Bowl XLIV at Sun Life Stadium in South Florida to give the Saints their first-ever NFL title.

2010: Sparked by a six game winning streak, the Saints finish 11-5 and qualify for the playoffs, making back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time since 1992.

2011: The club's completely renovated stadium makes its debut as the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, following a 10-year naming rights and sponsorship agreement with the automaker. The Saints enjoy an eight-game winning streak to end the regular season and finish 13-3, capturing their second NFC South title in three seasons. The team sets the NFL single-season record for total net yardage, while Brees and RB Darren Sproles set the NFL's single-season passing yardage and all-purpose yardage records.

2012: Continuing his longstanding commitment to the Gulf South region and the City of New Orleans, Mr. Benson agrees to purchase the National Basketball Association's New Orleans Hornets. The Saints practice facility undergoes a multimillion dollar renovation and expansion, which will house both the NFL and NBA clubs under one roof. Brees sets an NFL record that stood since 1960, as he threw a touchdown pass in 54 consecutive games.

2013: The City of New Orleans hosts Super Bowl XLVII on February 3, the 10th time the Crescent City has hosted the league's championship game (tied for first with South Florida) and the fifth time during Mr. Benson's ownership tenure.

2014: The Pelicans make their debut under the team's new namesake on Wednesday, Oct. 30 at Opening Night against the Indiana Pacers. New Orleans and the Pelicans host the 2014 NBA All-Star festivities from Feb. 14-16 for the second time in six years. For the first time in its history, the home of New Orleans' NBA team has naming rights as the New Orleans Arena becomes the Smoothie King Center as the locally-born company makes the ultimate commitment to the city.

2015: The Pelicans make the postseason for the first time under Mr. Benson's ownership. The team finishes the regular season 45-37, marking both the first winning season and playoff appearance since the 2010-11 season. The postseason run is the first under the new Pelicans identity.

2017: New Orleans hosts NBA All-Star Weekend for the second time under Mr. Benson's ownership, and the third time overall, making the Crescent City one of just six current NBA markets that have hosted the event three times. Pelicans forward Anthony Davis is named a starter for the Western Conference and earns MVP honors of the NBA All-Star Game, scoring an All-Star Game record 52 points. On July 26, the New Orleans Pelicans and Saints announce a multi-year agreement with Ochsner Health System to re-name the campus on Airline Drive the Ochsner Sports Performance Center. On Oct. 25, the Pelicans and Zatarain's announce a new integrated marketing partnership featuring the company's name, brand and logo on the team's uniforms beginning with the 2017-18 NBA season.

2018: The 2017-18 New Orleans Pelicans finish the regular season with 48 wins - the third most in frenchise history - and make the playoffs for the second time since Mr. Benson's purchase. New Orleans secures a first round sweep of third seeded Portland, advancing to the Western Conference Semifinals for just the third time in franchise history. In March, Mr. Benson passes away at the age of 90, and Mrs. Benson becomes owner of the Pelicans, Saints and Mr. Benson's business enterprises.

2019: Mrs. Benson completes her first season as Owner of the Pelicans and the organization begins taking steps for the next chapter of professional basketball in the Crescent City. On April 17, Mrs. Benson names highly sought-after front office veteran David Griffin as the new Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations. Upon Griffin's appointment, the Pelicans also add renouned athletic trainer Aaron Nelson as Vice President of Player Care & Performance on May 8, Trajan Langdon as General Manager on May 19, and WNBA-veteran Swin Cash as Vice President of Basketball Operations and Team Development on June 10, making her one of the highest ranking female executives in the NBA. On May 14, New Orleans defies the odds, and, with just a six-percent chance, wins the 2019 NBA Draft Lottery, leading to the franchise selecting Duke's Zion Williamson with the first overall pick in the 2019 NBA Draft on June 20. In July, Griffin and his front office staff executes the trade of All-Star forward Anthony Davis to the Los Angeles Lakers that nets the Pelicans a historic number of young players, draftees and future draft picks, radically re-shaping the roster ahead of the 2019-20 season. During the off-season, the Pelicans' practice facility at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center undergoes a multi-million dollar renovation, which includes a completly re-invisioned weight room, medical facilities and team locker room.

GAYLE BENSON

OWNER

Gayle Benson provides leadership for the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints as Owner, succeeding her husband, Tom Benson. The New Orleans native is an accomplished business professional and philanthropist with strong ties to the local community and who is dedicated to contributing to the growth and enhancement of the Gulf South region.

Immediately upon Mr. and Mrs. Benson's purchase of the former Hornets franchise from the NBA in 2012, construction began on a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility to house the entire organization together for the first time in New Orleans and the franchise would be rebranded as the Pelicans. Through agreements with the State of Louisiana upon the purchase of the Pelicans, the Smoothie King Center has undergone a complete renovation since the 2012 purchase, featuring a new center-hung HD scoreboard, which debuted in 2015, along with several additional fan upgrades. Through this commitment, NBA All-Star Weekend was awarded to New Orleans in 2014 and 2017, making the city one of just six current NBA markets to host the mid-season event at least three times.

Over the past several months, Mrs. Benson, recently appointed as a member of the NBA's Labor Relations Committee, has initiated and overseen a significant overhaul of the of the Pelicans organization.

Following an extensive search for an architect to build an NBA Championship contender, Mrs. Benson hired Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations David Griffin. Griffin has made several key hires to the Pelicans basketball staff in General Manager Trajan Langdon, Vice President of Basketball Operations/Team Development Swin Cash and Vice President of Player Care and Performance Aaron Nelson. Griffin has initiated a process of acquiring an influx of new players to upgrade and build the Pelicans roster, including Lonzo Ball, Derrick Favors, Josh Hart, Brandon Ingram and JJ Redick. These acquisitions and the return of NBA All-Star and two-time NBA All-Defensive selection Jrue Holliday will combined with the selection 2018-19 Associated Press College Player of the Year in Duke forward Zion Williamson with the first overall pick will form the nucleus of the Pelicans. Griffin with Mrs. Benson's encouragement also spearheaded a multimillion dollar renovation of the Pelicans practice facilities, focusing on player development and health and wellness.

Through the support of these organizational improvements by Mrs. Benson the Pelicans have established a solid foundation for 2019-20 and beyond, with the faith in the club being recognized by the fan base in club-record season ticket sales for the upcoming campaign.

Community investment and giving back have been hallmarks of Mr. and Mrs. Benson's ownership of the Pelicans and Saints. This tradition continues under Mrs. Benson's stewardship as she has further enriched the New Orleans community through her support to causes in the health and wellness, cancer care, education, arts and faith-based sectors.

As dedicated corporate citizens, Mrs. Benson's organizations annually put millions of dollars back into the community in financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances and donations of goods and services. Mrs. Benson's philanthropic leadership has been recognized far and wide. Her commitment to community engagement and promoting equality among all was the impetus for her recent appointment to the NFL's Social Justice Working Group.

In March, 2018, she and Mr. Benson (posthumously), received a Dermot McGlinchey Lifetime Achievement Award from Tulane University, honoring those who have demonstrated service, volunteer involvement and commitment to Tulane and their hometown communities. In September, 2018, she was inducted into the University of New Orleans' Hall of Distinction, along with her late husband posthumously. In 2015, the couple were honored by the regional chapter of the Anti-Defamation League with the A.I. Botnick Torch of Liberty Award. Mrs. Benson has been a longtime trusted and valued member of the local Catholic community, reflecting her deep faith. She's served on Archbishop's Community Appeal campaigns for four different Archbishops over the course of the past 30 years. She has worked tirelessly with the Archdiocese of New Orleans' Catholic Charities organization and its umbrella agencies that feature nearly 50 programs and three affiliated ministries that deliver health and human services to the poor and vulnerable in the eight civil parishes which the Archdiocese serves, as well as food and nutrition services statewide. Mrs. Benson's support of the Church has been recognized on numerous occasions. She has received the Medal of the Order of St. Louis Award for her dedication to the Church. In 2010, she became an Honorary Oblate of Mary Immaculate. She holds a leadership role after being inducted as Dame Commander with Star in the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. In 2012, Mr. and Mrs. Benson received from Pope Benedict XVI the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice award–for outstanding service to the Church and the Pontiff, the highest Papal award granted to a lay person. In recognition of their longstanding support of Catholic education, the couple also received the 2010 St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Award from the National Catholic Educational Association.

Mrs. Benson began her professional career in 1968 as a manager for a noted New York-based costume jeweler, overseeing and managing the daily operation of over 40 sales associates. She then branched out into real estate development which allowed her to successfully integrate her passion for interior design with property management. Her first real estate transaction occurred when she purchased a home in New Orleans's Irish Channel and then sold the property eight months later after extensive restoration. She would go on to purchase, manage and eventually sell several more properties, primarily in the city's Uptown district.

Mrs. Benson enjoyed a 30-year career in the design industry, a business where she achieved tremendous success. Throughout the course of her interior design career she was recognized with numerous professional awards and served as an inaugural member on the Louisiana State Board of Licensing for Interior Designers for four years. She directed numerous major design efforts with her clients, including the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, several of the city's most prestigious hotels, local supermarket chains and automobile dealerships.

In 2000, Mrs. Benson worked with the Mercedes-Benz Superdome on renovations to the iconic landmark's third and fourth level public spaces, in addition to renovations on select suites. She also owned and developed a commercial real estate building on the corner of Laura and Octavia Streets, a women's clothing private enterprise and a designer's showroom. The Men of Fashion Committee recognized Mrs. Benson during her career as one of the "Top Ten Best Dressed Women in New Orleans".

In addition to her ownership of the Saints and Pelicans, Mrs. Benson established GMB Racing Stables. In 2016, two of the thoroughbreds, Mo Tom and Tom's Ready participated in the Kentucky Derby. Her Lone Sailor horse ran in the 2018 Kentucky Derby. She owns Benson Farm at Greenwood Lodge in Lexington, Ky, a 1,000-acre farm. She also serves as the Owner of three local automotive dealerships, Best Chevrolet, Cadillac of New Orleans and Mercedes-Benz of New Orleans, Dixie Brewing Company and recently partnered to purchase the Hyatt Regency New Orleans.

Mrs. Benson was born in New Orleans and grew up in Old Algiers. She began her education in Catholic schools and in 1966 graduated from Martin Behrman High School. In May, she received an Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters from Loyola University New Orleans, where she was the commencement speaker at the school's 2019 graduation ceremony. She also received an honorary degree, serving as the 2015 Our Lady of Holy Cross College's commencement keynote speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Benson married on October 29, 2004 at the Immaculate Conception Memorial Chapel.

DENNIS LAUSCHA
PRESIDENT

Dennis Lauscha was named president of the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints in 2012. He serves a representative for both clubs at NBA Board of Governors and NFL Owners Meetings.

Lauscha first joined the Saints as treasurer in 1998 and later earned the additional titles of vice president, senior vice president and executive vice president. In addition to his duties with the Saints and Pelicans, the New Orleans native maintains multiple roles within other holdings of Gayle Benson.

Lauscha's collaborative style, financial acumen and long-term view has played a key role as a member of a contingent that has negotiated agreements for both the Pelicans and Saints with the state of Louisiana that has resulted in long-term lease agreements, continuous improvements to their playing and practice facilities, revitalization of the areas around them and generated revenue for the state without any new taxes for citizens.

In 2009, Lauscha helped negotiate the partnership with the Louisiana Governor that continues the Saints' commitment to the state through 2025. The deal included Mr. Benson purchasing and redeveloping the former New Orleans Centre, which has been transformed into Champions Square and the Benson Tower property adjacent to the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, with the stadium itself undergoing extensive renovations and improvements. Since playing a key role in the late Tom Benson's purchase of the Pelicans in 2012, Lauscha has helped broker agreements with the state to upgrade the team's playing and practice facilities. Following successful negotiations, the Pelicans are committed to the state through 2024 and the Smoothie King Center has undergone significant renovations and improvements.

In 2015, Lauscha helped negotiate an agreement with the state that resulted in $40 million in enhancements for fans of both clubs. The Mercedes-Benz Superdome debuted new state-of-the-art video boards in 2016 in addition to renovated suites and other fan amenities, while a new center-hung HD video scoreboard was installed in the Smoothie King Center for the 2015-16 Pelicans season. Lauscha has also played a key role in finalizing 2011 and 2014 ground-breaking naming rights and sponsorship agreements for both teams' playing facilities with Mercedes-Benz USA and Smoothie King.

Lauscha was instrumental in the 2003 expansion of the Saints training facility. He later oversaw a renovation and expansion of the facilities and administrative offices for the Pelicans and Saints from 2012-13, while directing the construction of a basketball practice facility. The clubs are now housed on the same site, featuring some of the top facilities in professional sports. In July of 2017, Lauscha played a key role in the facilitation of a multi-year naming rights agreement for the entire campus on Airline Drive, renaming it the Ochsner Sports Performance Center.

Lauscha is committed to help attract major sporting events to New Orleans. He is a key member of the team that actively pursues future NBA All-Star Games, Super Bowls and NCAA Basketball Final Four Championships for New Orleans – and was instrumental in landing Super Bowl XLVII. Following Mr. Benson's 2012 purchase of the Pelicans, the city has hosted NBA All-Star Games in 2014 and 2017.

Active throughout both sports and the community, Lauscha currently serves as a member of the Business Council of New Orleans, the Catholic Foundation Board of Directors, the Audubon Nature Institute Board and the National World War II Museum Board. Lauscha has completed terms as board president of the Preservation Resource Center, president of the regional chapter of the Boy Scouts of America and as a member of the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee, the NBA All-Star Game Host Committee, the NCAA Final Four Host Committee, the NBA's Team Advisory Council of Presidents, the NFL's Ticketing Strategy Working Group, the NBA's Team CBA Advisory Committee, the Stuart Hall School Board of Trustees, the New Orleans Museum of Art Board, the New Orleans Mayor's Transition Subcommittee and the Loyola University New Orleans School of Business Visiting Committee.

His dealings with the teams, state officials and local organizations have provided an opportunity for community involvement. His professional and charitable work was recognized by New Orleans CityBusiness, when Lauscha was selected as one of the 40 Most Influential Members of the Community. The honor is bestowed on those who are laying the groundwork for a better city. In 2010, he was named the Alumnus of the Year by Loyola's College of Business and was named to the 2010 Class of Role Models by the Young Leadership Council. He was honored by the Allstate Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame with its 2014 Distinguished American Award. He was also awarded the Order of West Range by Pi Kappa Alpha. In 2015, Lauscha gave the commencement address to the graduates of the University of New Orleans. In 2019, he was inducted into the Greater New Orleans Jr. Achievement Laureates Hall of Fame.

After graduating from Jesuit High School, Lauscha graduated from the University of Alabama with a bachelor's degree in business. He has also received a master's of business administration from Loyola University in New Orleans and is a licensed Certified Public Accountant. He has also completed the NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business. MICHAEL STANFIELD
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES

As Senior Vice President of Sales of the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints, Michael Stanfield is a key member of the front office for both clubs. The long-time sports administrative executive is responsible for overseeing the entire consumer and corporate sales efforts for both the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints, the two revenue-producing facets of both organizations.

Entering his eighth season with the Pelicans and 20th with the Saints, Stanfield is responsible for all of both clubs' sales efforts – directing the sale of season tickets, group tickets, floor seats and corporate partnerships, developing sales executives to the next level in their field, supervising the lease of the Smoothie King Center and Mercedes-Benz Superdome luxury suites, managing food and beverage for both facilities, overseeing a vast merchandising business for both teams flanked by a Pelicans and Saints team store, as well as maintaining the clubs' high standards of customer service and retention.

Since taking over leadership of the Pelicans' ticket sales and merchandising efforts, the organization has seen an increase in season-ticket sales and merchandise sales that were the second-biggest growth in the NBA.

Under his direction, the Saints have surpassed the majority of the club's ticket sales milestones, including selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time in franchise history in 2006 – a feat that has reached 13-straight seasons. In addition the club has leased every Superdome suite since the beginning of the 2008 campaign. Saints official merchandise has grown annually into one of the NFL's top sellers. Stanfield also supervises the ticket, suite sales and box office personnel on a daily basis, in addition to serving as the food and beverage service liaison with the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Since Stanfield's arrival in 2000, the Saints have sold out every contest in the Superdome but one. Prior to the 2006 season, an innovative season-ticket marketing program fueled the rise of filling the stadium on a season-ticket basis. Fans on all economic levels were reached in an effort to retain existing accounts while cultivating new ones, and those efforts built a waiting list that has continued to grow for season tickets for the first time in franchise history. In 2017, the team established a single-season regular season attendance record for games played at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome with 585,113 fans attending Saints games.

Stanfield has also helped oversee the institution of a direct mail and email database to generate ticket sales and excitement surrounding the club and initiated other creative promotional campaigns by using the club's ever-expanding social and new media platforms. The Saints have been ranked number one by the National Football League in Overall Gameday Satisfaction for the past two seasons in a survey conducted by the NFL's League Observation Program and third party Expert Review Audits of all 32 clubs in an eight-category review. In 2017, the Pelicans were ranked first in the NBA in season ticket holder satisfaction in a league-commissioned survey.

At the same time as making fan experience a top priority, Stanfield's also been deeply involved in the extension and expansion of the already sizable corporate sponsorship base for both clubs. In recent years, Stanfield has directed the extension of long-term agreements with numerous valued partners like Chevron, Cox Communications, Entergy and Verizon, as well as the expansion of the Ochsner Health System partnership to include naming rights for the Ochsner Sports Performance Center.

A graduate of St. Leo (Fla.) University, Stanfield started his career in sports, serving as the assistant general manager of the Clinton (Iowa), Class A baseball team in 1988 and had attained impressive sales results in sports prior to joining the Saints in 2000. In 2007, Stanfield completed Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known league-wide as an important training ground for promising executives.

Stanfield is on the Board of Directors for the Jefferson Chamber of Commerce, and served a member of the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee and the Executive Host Committee for the 2014 and 2017 NBA All-Star Games. A sports industry public speaker, Stanfield has given presentations at many national events. He is also an active speaker at numerous youth foundations and professional groups both nationally and throughout the Gulf South.

ALVIN GENTRY

HEAD COACH

On May 30, 2015, Alvin Gentry was named the Head Coach of the New Orleans Pelicans – the sixth in the franchise's history.

Prior to joining the Pelicans organization, Gentry served as the Associate Head Coach of the Golden State Warriors, helping navigate the team to one of the best seasons in NBA History. The Warriors won a then- franchise record 67 games – good for the best record in the NBA – and defeated the Cleveland Cavaliers in six games to claim the 2015 NBA Championship – the franchise's first in 40 years.

Gentry, 64, brings more than 35 years of coaching experience to the Crescent City. Gentry has previously served as the Head Coach of the Miami HEAT (1995), Detroit Pistons (1997-2000), Los Angeles Clippers (2000-2003) and Phoenix Suns (2008-2013). In 869 games, Gentry has amassed a career record of 399-470 (.459). During his tenure in Detroit, Gentry led the Pistons to the 1999 NBA playoffs during his only full season as head coach of the club. In Los Angeles, Gentry improved the Clippers' record by 16 wins during his first season in 2000-01 (31-51), and added another eight wins the following season (39-43), marking the franchise's best finish in nearly a decade. As head coach of the Suns, Gentry led the team to the 2010 Western Conference finals after a 54-28 regular season record – the fourth best in Phoenix franchise history.

Known for his offensive prowess, Gentry's 2009-10 Suns team led the NBA in scoring (110.2 points per game) as well as offensive rating (115.3), and finished fourth in pace of play (95.3), while being the only team in the league to connect on over 40-percent of their three-point field goal attempts (.412). During the 2013-14 season, Gentry served as the associate head coach of the Clippers, where Los Angeles led the league in both scoring (107.9 points per game) and offensive rating (112.1), while also finishing seventh in pace of play (95.9). While with the Warriors, Golden State led the league in scoring (110.0 point per game) and pace of play (98.3), while finishing second in offensive rating (111.6). This past season, Gentry's Pelicans squad finished third in points per game (111.7), and first in pace of play (102.73) on their way to 48 wins – the third most in team history – and a trip to the Western Conference Semifinals for just the second time in franchise history.

A native of Shelby, North Carolina, Gentry was a college point guard at Appalachian State, where he graduated with a degree in management in 1977 before embarking on a coaching career. He earned his first opportunity as a Graduate Assistant at the University of Colorado during the 1977-78 season and landed a full-time assistant coaching job at Baylor in 1980 before returning to Colorado as an assistant coach from 1981-85. In 1985, Gentry joined Larry Brown's staff as an assistant at the University of Kansas, helping the Jayhawks capture the 1988 National Championship and then proceeding to follow Brown to the NBA as an Assistant Coach on his staff with the San Antonio Spurs. This is Gentry's second stop in New Orleans, as he served as an Assistant Coach for Tim Floyd's staff during the 2003-04 season.

Media Credentials

Single game requests should be directed to the Pelicans communications office no later than noon the day before the game you wish to cover. First-time requests must be in written form on company letterhead and received by the aforementioned deadline. Because of limited press seating, credentials and/or media seating cannot be guaranteed. Credentials are good for admittance to the press room, dining area, locker rooms and seating areas and may be picked up at the press entrance (located at the loading dock entrance, which is across the street from Lot #4 at the Smoothie King Center). Credentials must be worn at all times and are non-transferable. Any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from the arena and the forfeiture of the credential. An autograph request by a media member will also result in the forfeiture of the credential. Photographs of full-season or single-game credentials are not to be posted on social media platforms, and doing so can result in the forfiture of credentials.

International Media Policy

Media representing an organization with affiliations located outside Canada or the United States must contact NBA International at (212) 407-8000 to arrange credentials. Please do not contact the Pelicans media relations department. Additional information on international media policies can be obtained from the NBA League Office.

Press Parking/Press Gate

Working media should park in Garage #5 VIP (on the corner of Dave Dixon Drive and West Stadium Drive), which opens eight hours prior to tip-off, and cross the street to enter the Smoothie King Center through the doors by the loading dock. You will be able to pick up your credential at the security checkpoint, located at the base of the loading dock. For single-game credentialed media, your name will be on a parking list held by the security guard at the entrance of the lot.

Media Work Room

The media work room is located at the west end of the arena to the right of the loading dock areas and is open four hours before game time. Media work room usage will be limited to the working media and game staff only. Telephones, fax service, internet access, game notes, statistics, quotes and out-of-town scores are available in this area. Please use common courtesy in securing a quiet working environment in the media work room.

Season passes will be provided to accredited photographers from New Orleans area daily newspapers and television stations who plan on covering at least 30 of the 41 regular season home games. Weekly newspaper photographers will be handled on an individual game basis. Photographers must be on assignment for a publication to be credentialed. Limited space is available at each end of the court for both television and still photographers. Photographers must stay in the designated area. Photographers may not sit on equipment cases and live television cameras have first priority on location and right of way. All NBA league rules regarding photography apply. Photographers/videographers that have a baseline position on the court must wear a photo vest, which can be retrieved from the media workroom from a member of the Pelicans PR staff. Only those wearing a vest may shoot from the court from 30 minutes before the scheduled tip through the conclusion of the game. An auxilary photo bank for photographers not provided with a baseline position is located above section 124.

Players from both teams are available for interviews at those times. Only working members of the media with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker room. Your cooperation is requested in maintaining a professional atmosphere in the locker room for pre and post-game interviews. Per NBA policy, still photography and use of cellular phones in the locker room is prohibited. Head Coach Alvin Gentry will be available 105 minutes prior to tip-off outside the team's locker room. The opposing head coach will be available 90 minutes prior to the game outside the visiting locker room. Both head coaches will address the media approximately 10 minutes following the game outside of their respective locker rooms.

Statistics are distributed to the working media during the game and are also available in the press room. Post-game notes and quotes are distributed a short time following the completion of the game. In an effort to reduce our paper consumption, in-game statistics for print media, as well as post-game notes and quotes, will be distributed via email. Box scores and game books will be available in the media workroom. Statistics monitors are provided for television and radio broadcasts as well as for print and television media.

LOGOS / MARKS

PRIMARY LOGO

PARTIAL LOGO

Wordmark
Inspired by French Quarter street signs.

Fleur-De-Lis
A most notable symbol of New Orleans, the Fleur-de-lis is also represented within the primary and secondary marks. Its roots lie within its French origin and the deep cultural heritage of our city and is thus displayed on the city's flag. The mark, however, came to mean much more after Hurricane Katrina devastated the region, and came to symbolize the heart and resolve of the city.

Crescent Basketball
Coined the "Crescent City" in 1835, New Orleans derived its popular nickname as it was established along the semi-circle bend of the Mississippi River. The crescent shape is thereby represented in several of the marks.

SECONDARY LOGOS

"BIRD-DE-LIS"
Incorporates pelican, fleur-de-lis and crescent basketball.

CIRCULAR
Incorporates cultural reference to "Crescent City" more formally and includes fleur-de-lis and crescent basketball.

NOLA
Refers to New Orleans, LA and includes fleur-de-lis.

Blue, gold and red are the colors represented in the flag of New Orleans.

Primary - Blue
Representative of the state flag of Louisiana. Traditionally represents liberty (as in the City of New Orleans flag).

Secondary - Gold
The raucous embellishment and flourish that represents the spirited life of New Orleans. It's a color indicative of the city itself. It ties together this organization (shared color with the Saints), the rich and diverse history of the city and its culture of celebration. It's the color often found in the "crown" of pelicans and represented the championships we intend to win.

Tertiary - Red
Red signifies fraternity, one blood or union, as with this team of players. It also represents the legend of the mother pelican pricking her own breast to feed her young in times of need, doing whatever it takes to endure. It's found on the throat of this powerful bird and

Upon the completion of renovations to Legacy Arena, the franchise will permanently relocate to Birmingham.

The Pelicans will partner with the BayHawks' current management team, led by Owen McCormick and Matt Bresee, to operate the team in Erie. Most recently, the group in Erie has been in partnership with the Atlanta Hawks to host that team's NBA G League affiliate while its arena in College Park, Georgia, is being completed. Erie has been the home to an NBA G League team since the 2008-09 season.

Since the NBA G League began in 2001, New Orleans has called up a total of 31 players, including 18 in the last four seasons, and have assigned seven players to the G League for development or injury rehabilitation.

COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

The New Orleans Pelicans community efforts focus on two key initiatives critical to the future success and prosperity of the Gulf South region: the health and sustainability of our coastal wetlands and the health and fitness of our region's children.

In conjunction with our community and corporate partners, the Pelicans continue to execute several outreach programs that positively impact and inspire the lives of individuals in our community.

The health of the coastal wetlands is vital to growth and success of the state and region. The Louisiana wetlands provide 30% of the seafood catch in the contiguous U.S. Our wetlands habitat is also home to a wide variety and number of wildlife and plants.

Over 80% of wetland loss in the United States occurs in Louisiana – the equivalent of 12 basketball courts is lost every 30 minutes. The Gulf Coast has lost more than 55% of the wetlands that were here when the first Europeans arrived in the 15th century – a loss of more than 100 million acres.

The New Orleans Pelicans and the Audubon Nature Institute continue to team up to help preserve Louisiana's coast and wetlands. The long-term partnership focuses specifically on educating students on the effects of coastal restoration on the Region, as well as inspiring them to take action to ensure the long-term health of the coast.

The Pelicans organization is an advocate for the health and wellness of children in the Gulf South. With the ongoing goal of helping kids find the excitement in being active, the Pelicans host their Junior Training Camp program presented by Smoothie King, and Ochsner Health System. Junior Training Camps engage students in activities focused on creating a fun and memorable basketball experience, while also being active and healthy.

The Pelicans and Biddy Basketball, an internationally recognized youth basketball development program, have partnered with the goal of promoting and growing local youth participation in basketball. They work closely together on the organization of numerous basketball and life skills clinics across the Gulf South region, enhancing the branding and uniform experiences for the players, creating special nights, tournaments and promotions at New Orleans Pelicans home games while continually emphasizing and highlighting the efforts of Biddy Basketball and youth basketball. Biddy Basketball, which has been headquartered in New Orleans since the 1960's, adheres to its mission of providing instructions and guidelines for properly developing fundamentally sound basketball skills while also helping children gain knowledge, skills and competencies in basketball coupled with learning the importance of teamwork and other important social skills. Biddy Basketball has implemented smaller basketballs, lower goals and the distance of the free throw line to better fit the younger athletes. These simple modifications permit the players to learn the fundamentals of the game and to develop their ball handling skills with regard to their age and physical abilities.

The Pelicans also support the Jr. NBA presented by Under Armour initiative, the NBA's youth basketball participation program for boys and girls ages 6-14. The Jr. NBA teaches the fundamental skills as well as the core values of the game at the grassroots level in an effort to help grow and improve the youth basketball experience for players, coaches and parents.
